Hi,

we are Tijana & Andrew.

We welcome you to Your guide for a Happy Life.

ABOUT BOOK

This is a handbook, for which you don't need prior knowledge of Feng Shui, that will serve you as a life guide, in any time and any place. You can read it multiple times.

Feng Shui is a wide area, and so this book is not meant for the professional training of Feng Shui practise.

The intention of this book is to help you with short, clear and descriptive content, to live a happy and fulfilled life together with your house.

Thank you for choosing to love yourself!

We want to take you
on a journey, a journey to a happy life...

Enjoy!

INTRODUCTION

The most important question you can ask yourself is:

Who am I and why am I here?

What sparks the light in my heart?

Find your inner light, and live it.

Find your purpose. When you know why you are here, then starts the Life worth living. Then your life becomes a joy.

Follow your life mission and enjoy in the journey, success and everything else will follow you wherever you go. Become free.

Make this world a better place because you are here. You can. We endlessly support you and encourage you in that.

Chapter 1

BE OPEN for NEW OPPORTUNITIES

1. BE OPEN FOR NEW OPPORTUNITIES

Make space for new things in your home.

How can we expect the new if we haven't first released the old?

Be open, open the door of your home for new energy, for new events, for new things. If you do not open the door, your change will always stay in front, waiting for you.

House + NEW THINGS

New opportunities IN LIFE

How to invite new opportunities into your life:

1. DO SOMETHING ONCE A YEAR THAT YOU HAVE NEVER DONE BEFORE

Travel somewhere, make a new activity, adventure, start new sport, dedicate yourself to your hobby...

This opens you for new events and teaches you that newness is natural, desirable and exciting!

2. REMOVE UNWANTED ITEMS FROM THE HOUSE

Objects that are keeping you in the past are not allowing you to let go of it. Remove them, or give them as a donation, you will be thrilled with the idea that you have done something good.

You can tell to the object: "Thank you for serving me, now is the time to set you free and move on."

3. BRING NEW THINGS IN YOUR HOME

Replace old things with new ones from time to time. Make something new in your home, a new lamp, an armchair, a curtain, paint the walls, refresh space... That does not need to be big investment.

You will feel better instantly!

4. BRING HEALTHY PLANTS AND SYMBOLS

Plants and flowers carry life within themselves, hence they will bring new energy into your life.

Bring Feng Shui symbols to enhance new opportunities in your life – like birds or phoenix.

5. REPLACE OLD PHOTOS WITH NEW ONES

New recent photos bring new opportunities to you, your family and friends and allow your relationship to grow.

New PHOTOS

New OPPORTUNITIES

6. BE AWARE OF THE ARTWORK IN YOUR HOME

Artwork is sending subconscious message to our home and life all the time. What message does your artwork send?

Negative IMAGES

Negative LIFE

Does it present historical events, negative emotions or returning to past?

Place new photos that inspire you and present something nice and positive to you.

Happy LIFE

Your home is the reflection of your life. You know the most what is the best for you! Be open for new chapters in your life. Trust in yourself!

Chapter 2

LET GO

of the

PAST

2. LET GO OF THE PAST

First, let go of the fear. Fear keeps you in the past, in your comfort zone. Fear is often the biggest reason why we do not follow our dreams and why we don't have the courage to hear the inner voice that leads us to the only true way of living.

How do we let go of the past? You can ask yourself:

- "Do I want this to be a part of my life?"
- "Would I like to release this part of the past?"
- "Does this allow me to grow into a better version of myself?"

This you can apply for any area of your life, or any object in your house. The true answer will give you relief, and you and your home will be happier.

When you free yourself of that part of the past, you can continue to grow in that area of your life.

In your home, every piece of furniture carries a certain energy frequency. More precisely, everything has some form of energy, which resonates or not with us.

House + OLD THINGS

Life IN THE PAST

All objects that do not give a nice message, remind you on bad memories or create an uncomfortable feeling in you, are carrying the energy that becomes part of your home.

If it is part of your home, then it's part of you, as well.

House - UNWANTED THINGS

Letting go OF THE PAST

How to know do you need something in your home?

- Do you need it, have you used it in the last year?
- Do you have nice memories / feelings when you see that object?
 - or they are locked in a drawer hoping you won't find them
- Is it in a good condition?

Defective / broken objects carry negative energy within them.

We suggest to give things that no longer serve you to someone who will be happy to have them. You would make an act of kindness, to yourself and to others.

When we give, it comes back to us, more often in a higher and brighter amount.

Letting go of the past begins with acceptance,
by accepting who you are.
Accept yourself and lovingly release what no longer serves you.

Fear is only in your mind. Listen to your heart.
Your heart will take you where you really want to be.
Dare to listen your heart, because only then the real life begins!

Chapter 3

CREATE with YOUR HOUSE

3. CREATE WITH YOUR HOUSE

Vision is what you need to make your wish come true. When you have a vision of your life, you have a clear goal, a clear path and your actions lead to that realization. Everything started once with a vision.

Clear VISION = Clear GOAL

Clear intention IN LIFE

We create the world we are living in, with our thoughts, words and actions. In other words, with our state of being. The way how we radiate, how we give out, so it returns to us.

Let your desires, visions come through you, just for you. Don't allow yourself to be under the influence of your limited beliefs or the people around you.

Silence your mind, to hear the whisper of your heart, to hear your inner call.

Only you know what you really want.

All things, situations and events are there for us to become a better version of ourselves, to evolve on our life journey.

Let's together create a better world in which we live!

Your inner work will always follow an external, physical manifestation.

That inner feeling leads to the realization of your desire.

Work on YOURSELF + Create with YOUR HOUSE

We create WHAT WE WANT

Work on yourself:

1. SET A CLEAR INTENTION

Your intention creates the outcome. You can ask yourself:

- “ Did my desire arise out of love or fear?”
- “ Does my desire make me feel good?”
- “ Will what I want serve someone?”
- “ Does my desire allow me to grow?”

2. CREATIVE VISUALIZATION

Visualize your desire, see yourself in what you want to become.

3. GRATITUDE

When we say gratitude, we don't only mean material things, you can be grateful for the sun, for a new day, for life, for waking up, for being healthy, for your loved ones...

4. BE WHAT YOU WANT TO RECEIVE

Give what you want to receive. This principle sounds paradoxical, but when you give you create the feeling that you already have, so much that you can share with others.

5. FEEL GOOD AND RELAX

Enjoy in the journey to your desire.

Create with your house

Does your house give message for who you want to be?

Your HOUSE

Your CREATIVE BOARD

We will give you one example, and you can apply it to any segment of life...

Ready?

Do you want love?

1. Do you want a loving partner? Do you want your relationship to flourish and more understanding in your relationship?

2. Is your house ready to "receive another person"? Is your house in alignment with your wish?

Your house responds to your intentions, to your desires.

3. Do you want harmony in love? Let's make a room for that.

Now go to your bedroom, and take a look. What does your room tell you?

4. Does it invite your loving partner and love?

Or do you see one pillow, one night lamp, different bedsheets?

Is it messy or full of unnecessary things?

It is already clearer to you, isn't it?

Now, tell your room and yourself, what you want.

Write it, if you wish. When we put our thoughts on paper, we have a clearer and bigger picture about it.

How to create love in life with your room?

1. MAKE AN ARRANGEMENT OF THE ROOM

Get rid of clutter and tidy up

2. HAVE A PHOTO OF YOU AND YOUR PARTNER / VISION BOARD

You can make your own vision board about love, which you will look at every day when you wake up. What does your love look like, how do you feel, what is your environment...?

3. HAVE THINGS IN PAIRS

Bring two lamps, two pillows, the same bedding, love symbols in pairs, for example two birds in love. Create balance in the room, so that your relationship will be in harmony.

4. WRITE A LETTER TO YOUR PARTNER

Then tell yourself what you want, and describe your love story.

5. BE LOVE

When you find love in yourself and when you start loving yourself, you will find love in life.

Bedroom IN HARMONY

Love IN HARMONY

Step into the new version of yourself, together with your house. Visualize, feel the emotions of your new desire. And then let go and believe.

Your faith is the key to open the door to your new life.

Believe even when you do not see, when there is no physical proof of your desire, especially then believe.

Your faith is the bridge between your dreams and their realization.

Chapter 4

HOUSE HYGIENE

4. HOUSE HYGIENE

When you clear your home, you clear your life!

The clutter and dirt of the house are often the biggest obstacle to make your life go with ease.

They make you lifeless, upset and usually do not allow your inspiration to flow.

Clutter negatively affects mood, concentration, brings stress to family members and creates obstacles in your life because clutter blocks the flow of energy in the space.

Disorder = Stress

Blockage IN LIFE

Blockages in the energy flow can be found in the parts of the house that are connected to and negatively affect your health, wealth, love...

Not ORGANIZED HOUSE

Not ORGANIZED LIFE

Here are some indicators of how house order affects us:

NEGATIVE ENERGY / BAD FENG SHUI:

STAGNANT AIR = OLD ENERGY

UNPLEASANT SMELL = NEGATIVE ENERGY

DUST / DIRT = STAGNATION

DISORDER IN THE REFRIGERATOR / KITCHEN = BAD FINANCES

UNCLEAR WARDROBE = UNCLEAR LIFE

POSITIVE ENERGY / GOOD FENG SHUI:

NEW AIR = NEW ENERGY

PLEASANT SMELL = POSITIVE ENERGY

ORDER = BEAUTIFUL ENERGY FLOW

CLEAN HOUSE = CLEAN MIND

ARRANGED REFRIGERATOR / KITCHEN = MONEY FLOW

NEAT WARDROBE = NEAT LIFE

How to organize your space to benefit you:

- less is more / simplify - we don't need to keep everything that enters our home. With the less things we give space for energy to move in the house.
- keep it clean and in order - treat your house like your body
- sort it out - organize things in nice boxes with different colours or name on it, to be a nice part of the interior.
- remove or donate items you do not use
(see chapters 1 and 2)
- ventilate regularly - keep fresh air and new energy in your home
- keep only what you need, use and love

You will feel better instantly. When your house shines, you will shine too!

Chapter 4.1

TEST YOUR HOUSE

4.1 TEST YOUR HOUSE

Let's play a game!

Does your house bring you joy and positive energy?

(choose and remember your answer)

How often do you open windows / ventilate the house?

1. Often / every day
2. Occasionally, when we remember
3. Rarely

In what condition are the plants in your house?

1. We have healthy and beautiful plants
2. We have some but they have withered / need better care
3. We don't have plants

Do you have messy shelves /storages/ cabinets, filled with a things that you don't use?

1. No, everything has its place and it is tidy
2. Yes, we have some parts that are filled with unnecessary things, and not well organized
3. Yes, most of the closet is messy, and often we don't know where our things are

What kind of lighting is in your house?

1. The house is very bright and we have a lot of natural light
2. There are rooms / part of the house that lack lighting
3. A large part of the house is not lit and we lack natural light

How often do you clean the house?

1. Very often, we regularly do general cleaning of all rooms
2. Often, but there are parts of the house that are not regularly cleaned
3. Not so often, the house is generally not enough clean and organized

How do you feel in your house?

1. Great! We love the time we spend at home and we are productive
2. Nice, however sometimes we lack motivation or we are often in a bad mood
3. Usually tired and not interested, we don't have enough time and good organization

RESULTS:

if you
have answer 1

Happy House

The energy of the house is good for you.

Your house is vital, alive, active and brings you good fortune and joy. The energy of the house positively influences people who live there.

Your house is happy with you! Keep it up!

if you
have answer 2

Your House needs your attention

The energy of your house needs to be refreshed, energized, more active and alive.

Open windows to allow new energy to enter daily, clear up, light up all areas of your home.

Keep your plants alive and healthy.

Bring in some more yang, active energy in your home and your life.

Instantly you will feel better, more focused and full of life!

if you
have answer 3

Sad House

Your house lacks life.

Dark and unused spaces have very low energy frequency, which negatively influences people who live there – their mood, health, life and well-being.

Bring new plants, open windows, light up all rooms, declutter. When you declutter your home, you will declutter your life.

Bring more life, new, positive energy and new opportunities in your life.

Instantly you will feel better, peaceful and joyful. You can do it!

This is a wonderful way how to become aware of the energy of your home and how it affects you.

Now you know what are the first steps that you can do to change the energy and feel better in your home!

Chapter 5

LOVE your HOUSE

5. LOVE YOUR HOUSE

Love your house. Your house is like a mirror, when you love it, it will love you back. If you love your house, it means that you accept and love yourself.

Love YOUR HOUSE

Love YOUR LIFE

Your house has a soul, it wants attention, care, gratitude, company... What you give away, it comes back to you, multiple times. The happiness of your home will be reflected in your life experience.

When you don't give love to your house, you usually lack progress in life, or you are not able to transform the undesirable parts in your life. That can be any area of your life, or any object in your house. In that case you can tell yourself:

"I will release with love, everything I no longer want in my experience."

This sentence will bring you magic. By transforming yourself and your home, your life will be transformed, as well.

Not CARED HOUSE

Resistance TO LIFE

Sad HOUSE

Sad LIFE

When you are grateful to your house, your house is grateful to you.
Gratitude is the key to a happy life.

Grateful TO HOUSE

Grateful IN LIFE

Do something for your house every day:

1. Bring fresh flowers and nurture your plants - this is how you nurture the life energy of the space
2. Have fresh fruit on the table - bring healthy energy and activate the health of your family
3. Arrange the part of the closet / space that you do not use - clean the energy of the space
4. Give a warm Welcome when you enter - your house always welcomes you
5. Make a party - occasional family and friends gatherings bring back a new yang energy and keep your life with a flow

Your house will be joyful as much as you!

Happy HOUSE

Happy LIFE

When you love your house, you will let her love you too.

Make your home a place you want and love to be in.

You will release the resistance in life, and embrace it!

Chapter 6

LOVE YOURSELF

6. LOVE YOURSELF

Do something every day that will make you happy.

Give yourself a break, a moment to make that favourite coffee, relax in your armchair, write your blog, read your favourite book, go to nature.

What did you do for yourself today to feel better?

If you don't feel good, if you don't fulfil yourself first, you have nothing to give to others.

Fill your "glass" so that you can serve yourself and those around you.

In other words, when you are happy, you can make others happy, too. When you are healthy, you can care for your loved ones and spend time with them. When you love yourself, when you have love inside you, you can truly love others.

YOU ARE LOVED...

YOU ARE WORTHY...

YOU ARE WONDERFUL...

YOU ARE PERFECT JUST THE WAY YOU ARE.

We are not only talking about material things here, we are talking about your inner state of being, your feeling, your heart. Light up your mood, fill yourself from within and go out in a new day, new adventure.

Take time for yourself every day, at least five minutes.

We suggest that you do it in the beginning of the day. Why? Because the beginning of the day is our starting point, and so with our morning we create the day ahead of us. When you continue each day like that, you will consciously create your whole life.

We are certain that your day will not be the same again! Try it...

How to love yourself every day:

1. Meditation, breathing – quite your mind and free yourself from thoughts. Find peace and inner alignment with your being, with life. Find the centre within yourself.
2. Writing a gratitude or journal - gratitude reminds you of the abundance of life. When you are grateful for what you have, life will always give you reason for even more gratefulness.
3. Exercise or walking - physical activity keeps you young and vital, and gives you energy for the day in front of you.
4. Favourite drink / coffee – we like to mention, for everyone who loves this morning pleasure.
5. Set an intention for this day - you can say:
 - “ Today will be a great day!”
 - “ Today I will easily achieve all the planned tasks!”
 - “ Today will be a creative and fun day!” ...

6. Going to nature, water – we encourage you to connect with nature, that is where you came from. Water gives energy back to us and calms us, it removes all negative thoughts or burdens which we carry within us.

7. Watch the sunrise or sunset - it reminds us to appreciate the wonders of nature and the perfection of its cycle.

Be wonderful to yourself, because you deserve it.

Stop, and make time for yourself, because your five minutes will change your life.

And don't forget the ancient Chinese wisdom:

"Nature does not hurry, yet everything is accomplished."

Lao Tzu

Chapter 7

BRING LIFE

into

SPACE

7. BRING LIFE INTO SPACE

Each form of life energy represents yin or yang energy.

Yang is the active life energy. Yin is the passive life energy.

Yang is day, light, summer, activity, movement, sounds...

Yin is night, darkness, winter, passivity, peace, silence...

Yin and yang are complementary opposites, which cannot exist without each other and give the perfect balance to life.

DARKNESS = NEGATIVE ENERGY

LIGHT = POSITIVE ENERGY

What we want is to bring more yang, active, positive energy into our living space. Positive energy will bring more life, activity, joy, vitality, willingness in our life.

Yang energy is created through:

1. PLANTS

Dried PLANTS = Lack of LIFE

Healty PLANTS = Healty LIFE

Plants carry life in themselves. Plants present growth, development, new life, new energy. They are an excellent source of yang energy.

2. WATER FEATURE

Moving water creates a wonderful and active yang energy in the house. Water is a symbol of prosperity and wealth and when it is active it creates such energy in our home. Picture of water can be a replacement for this element.

3. MUSIC

Music / melody makes the space alive and brings the vibration of life, happiness and joy. If you have a bad day, play some music.

Music creates wonders for your mood.

4. LIGHT

Light alone is the symbol of yang energy. Light has a great power and gives high energy to the space. We can see how much energy the Sun gives to the Earth. All life forms would not exist without the Sun.

The sun has the same effect on us and our house.

Of course, in our house the effect of solar energy we can replace with artificial lighting.

Bright lighting gives life to the space and instantly improves your mood. If it's a cloudy day or you're in a bad mood, turn on the lights!

5. COLORS

Bright and vibrant colours are yang energy. It is recommended to have lighter colours in your home, especially the colour of the ceiling. Darker ceiling in living spaces overwhelm the occupants.

Bright colours create a feeling of joy, inspiration, creativity...

6. OTHER DECORATIVE OBJECTS

Decorations that have some form of "movement" in them, that are not static, such as a fan, wall clock, windchime... are also yang energy.

Every movement vibrates and creates yang, vibrant energy.

7. PETS

Only a thought about them makes you smile.

Pets are a great source of yang energy and bring joy and love into our lives. They keep the energy of the house alive, and they are especially recommended in homes which are more quiet, where there are not many house members or in the houses with a lot of unused rooms.

Yin energy

Yin is energy opposite of yang. So, yin energy gives the opposite effect of yang energy. Where we want to have a calm atmosphere, we create yin.

Examples when we want to bring yin energy:

1. In hot summer days when there is a lot of solar energy and high temperatures, we want to cool our home and balance the energy inside the house, using thicker curtains, blinds, cooling devices...

2. In the rooms for rest / bedroom - That is a part of the house, where we want peace, quietness and where our body rests. For a peaceful sleep, we want calm atmosphere and colours to dominate, such as earthy colours. They bring stability and peace to the household.

What we don't want are mirrors, a lot of plants, bright colours, music... Those are all elements with a large amount of yang, active energy.

The energy balance also depends on the purpose of the room.

The front part of the house is the active part, the place where the most of Chi energy enters. That is why it is recommended that rooms for rest are located at the back part of the house, or not near the front door.

It is important to know that balance is the key. We want both energies to be present in our space. Houses with a dominant yin energy can cause lifelessness and negative mood. While, homes with too much yang energy can cause people living there be upset and distracted.

Find your balance and enjoy!

Chapter 8

ALLOW THE ENERGY
to
FLOW

8. ALLOW THE ENERGY TO FLOW

When we talk about blockage or a nice flow of energy, we think on Chi - the energy of life.

If the energy is blocked in any part of the house, it will negatively affect our life as well.

That can create the blockage or undesirable circumstances in health, love, career... and it will not allow us to progress in life and make our dreams come true.

Energy BLOCKAGE

Blockage IN LIFE

What creates energy blockages in the space?

- mess / disorder
- dirt / unhygiene
- overload of furniture / things...

Energy FLOW
Happiness IN LIFE

What we want is to allow the energy of life to flow gently, with ease, circling in our home around objects and furniture.

We make a space for the energy to move and allow our house to “breathe”.

How does Chi-energy go in and out of our home?

Chi enters through the front door of the house, and that is why is so important the state of your entrance door. We want to invite and welcome the energy to enter our home.

Chi goes out through the windows or doors at the opposite end of the house, or at the back door.

Beautiful ENTRANCE DOOR =
Positive ENERGY ENTERS OUR HOME

Opened WINDOWS =
New ENERGY ENTERS OUR HOME

Chi also circulate through the windows of the house.

The windows of the house represent your view and approach of life. The windows are the "eyes of the house".

Keep them clean and in good condition.

Dirty WINDOWS

Clean WINDOWS

Not CLEAR VISION OF LIFE

Clear VISION OF LIFE

How do we benefit positive energy in the space?

We want that positive Chi settles in and circulates in the space, rather than coming out straight through the opposite opening. In that case, we can create an "obstacle" around which energy will soften the flow of movement, so that it will be beneficial for us. That can be a table / piece of furniture, larger pot with plant...

Positive CHI

Positive LIFE

Positive energy in the house will bring positive changes in your life and allow you to progress in all areas of life!

Chapter 9

LISTEN to CHILDREN

9. LISTEN TO CHILDREN

Children have no fear of life. We can often learn from them to remind us that we are creative beings and that we have come to this world to create.

Your children are very sensitive to the energy of space and its atmosphere.

There are places where your children play, laugh and are simply in a good mood. This is most likely a sign that there is a good flow of energy in the space. Also, there are places where they are not so happy, they want to change location or they show unusual behaviour.

Now you know that the answer is, in most cases, unbalanced energy in space, or in a large amount present negative energy.

We will give you some ways how to know if the energy of the house resonates with the child.

How to know if a child is happy in your house?

1. Does he/she laugh often?

In essence of a child is happiness and joy of life.

2. Does he/she like to play or have a favourite corner?

Pay attention to where the child likes to spend the most time, this may be an indication that the energy of that space is in balance and serves him/her.

3. Is he/she healthy? – Does he/she often get sick?

If the energy in the house is not good and does not benefit us, it may create health issues in our daily life.

4. Does he/she sleep well?

If a child often doesn't have a peaceful and nice rest there must be something in the energy of space that disturbs him.

5. Is he/she free?

Freedom is their second nature. When a child is free in a play and with other people the energy of the house supports him in doing so.

6. Does he/she have focus and creativity?

Children are creative beings and have their own world of imagination in which they live. Allow the child to express creativity in his own way and encourage him/her in that. That is very important for his/her personal development.

We want to encourage you to support your child to have imagination. Imagination helps us realize our dreams.

Imagination gives children wings and the opportunity to create their own world. Children know that anything is possible. Support them in this.

Let the child sometimes make a decision, to be guided by his instincts. In this way you teach them to listen and trust in themselves. The child is of instinctive nature and often knows to recognize what is the best for him. Let them find themselves.

The same means for you, for everyone living in the house. Listen to yourself.

Do you feel good, in your body,
in your life?

If you have noticed some or all of these characteristics in yourself or a child there is probably a negative or unbalanced energy in the house. Try to arrange your home, make a replacement of furniture, refresh the space with new energy, clear up the mess...
